

PEELLAND Branches

Family records

9 generations between 1586 and 1892

background information.

The 2 Peelland branches start with the descendants of Johannes Verasdonck, son of Jan (Joes) Verasdonck, born in Lierop +/- 1586. Johannes married in Horst in 1612 with Elisabeth Bongard. He had a sister Elisabeth, who married Jan Jansen Bastiaens and 2 brothers, Hubertus, who became priest and Godefridus, whose descendants are listed in the Main Branch. This Peelland Branch is an interesting side branch with 4 generations Inn keepers in Vught, starting with two brothers Antony and Lucas. We follow their descendants until the last record in chart 5, when Godefridus Verasdonck married in Leende with Anna Maria van de Hulsbeek on 22.9.1893. (see Charts 4, 5 and 6.)

In the second branch we follow Heylken's brother Jan Hendrix Verasdonck, whose descendants are in the charts 7 and 8.

Be aware that in the early 17th century the Verasdonck family name existed already for 200 years (7 generations) and people moved much more around. Horses were the main means of transport, trade became daily routine and farming was not any more the only way to survive. People had easier access to education as book printing became more and more popular. Labour was needed in the cities for new services and many new professions came up like medical surgeons!

 The taalstraat starts from the crossing of roads to 's-Hertogenbosch and Helvoirt.
 The Taalstraat leads to the 'Markt', from where the Taalstraat continues to the river 'Dommel'
 The Inns were located between the Markt and the crossing of the intermunicipal roads.

IX Lucas Janse Verasdonck, son of Johannes Verasdonck and Elisabeth Bongardt. Born +/- 1614.

Johannes married twice. His first marriage was +/- 1639 with Anthoniske Peter Wayers, the widow of Jan Peter Haerwessers, with whom she had 2 daughters Henderske and Perijn. Through Anthoniska Lucas inherited 'de Valck' Inn. In 1640 Lucas, his family and his brother Antonij were living in the 'Valck' and the 'Wildeman', was the Inn. 4 years later, when Lucas wanted to split the property, the family lived in 'de Wildeman' and had 'de Valck' was the lodgement. Anthoniske must have died before 1660 when Johannes married with Peeterken Ariens Verheijden. In 1676 at age 62 Lucas died in November and 7 days later died his wife Peeterken.

The property 'de Valck' / 'de Wildeman' must have been built 15 years before 15.6.1630 when the house was sold:
Mariken, daughter of Goyart Daniels and widow of Henrick Henrix Roosmalen, her first husband, later widow of Gijsbert Floris van Cromvoirt, her second husband, sells houses, court and garden opposite the Carthuisen monastery at the 'Taalstraat', neighbouring to the property of Adriaans Jans van Vught, Gerart Jacobs Servaes van Weerd to Jan Lambers Leijten, a miller at the 'Runmolen' in Vught.

We are at the last stage of the 80 Years War for independence and Frederik Hendrik was attacking 's-Hertogenbosch. Due to the war the revenues from the Inn were bad. Jan Lambers Leyten sold his property to Jan Peter Haerwessers already a year later in 1631. Most likely that Johannes and his brother Anthony were already working in the Inn, when Jan Peter Haerwessers died in 1638.

Lucas and Anthoniske had 3 children: Johannes, Elsken and Aleijda.

X Aleijda Verasdonck, born in 1645 in Vught daughter of Lucas Janse Verasdonck and Anthoniske Peter Wayers. Aleijda had no partner, nor children and asumed to be active in the Inn. Aleijda witnessed the birth of her cousin Antoni in July 1676, but she must have died a few months later, since she is not mentioned any more in later documents. (see Elsken)

X Elsken Verasdonck, born in 1642 in Vught daughter of Lucas Janse Verasdonck and Anthoniske Peter Wayers. Elsken did not have a partner, nor children. Not much records are found, she worked most likely in the Inn. She was mentioned in the heritage document dated December (?) 1676 with 12 others:
Jan Luijcas Verasdonck, his wife Maria Catharina Joanis and their son Anthony Verasdonck, Elsken Verasdonck, Henderske Jan Peter Hairwessers, her husband Dirck Hendrick Vogels and their children Peter, Marcel, Francis, Hendrick and Jenneke Vogels, Perijn Jan Peter Hairwessers and her husband Aert Peter Brocken.

X Johannes Verasdonck, born in Vught (+/- 1640) son of Lucas Janse Verasdonck and Anthoniske Peter Wayers.

Johannes married +/- 1675 with Maria Catharina Joanis.

Johannes and Elsken had each 25% ownership of the property, while Henderske and Perijn Hairwessers and their husbands had the other half. Thanks to the fact that his father Lucas had split the property in 1644, the Verasdoncks took the Inn 'in de Lindeboom' and the ownership of the Inn 'de Valck' went to Henderske and Perijn Hairwessers, the half sisters of Johannes.

Johannes still had the Inn 'in de Lindeboom' in 1692 when he was convicted for 'sheltering criminals'.

There are, however, no records found that Antoni, his son, inherited the Lindeboom. Nevertheless Antoni was registered in 1728 as Innkeeper of the Inn "Hof van Brussel", which is the next second neighbouring property in the Taalstraat.

This means that the Inn "in de Lindeboom" must have been sold somewhere between 1692 and 1696.

The history of the Inn 'de Valck' continues as follows:

On the 25th of February 1686 after the death of Henderske and her husband Dirck Hendrick Vogels, their sons Peter and Marcellis, also on behalf of their younger brothers Francis and Hendrik and their sister Jenneke, sold their shares to Aert Peter Broken. Aert Peter died two years later and on the 1st of March 1688 his widow Perijn Hairwessers 'rented' the revenues from the Inn for 3 years to Adriaan Govaerts van de Weijer. Later she sold him the Inn. Pieter de Coningh bought first the Garden in 1691 from Adriaan Govaerts van de Weijer and later he bought the Inn. After Adriaans death his widow Alida sold the Inn 'de Valck' in 1708 to Teunis Schuurman.

We have no records of Johannes after 1692. Most likely Johannes as well as his wife Maria died before 1697, the year that their son Antoni married his second wife: Helena Jonkers.

Johannes and Maria had 3 children: Antoni, Lucas and Agatha.

XI Agatha Verasdonck, daughter of Johannes Verasdonck and Maria Catharina Joanis, born in Vught +/- 1680 Agatha witnessed the baptism of Hendrina Verasdonck in the St Lambertus Church in Vught in 1736. She was 56 year old at that time. No further record found.

XI Lucas Verasdonck, son Johannes Verasdonck and Maria Catharina Joanis, born in Vught +/- 1677 No further records found. Most likely he died at young age.

XI Antoni Verasdonck, son of Johannes Verasdonck and Maria Catharina Joanis, born in Vught and baptised on Tuesday the 14th of July 1676 in the St. Lambertus Church, witnessed by his grandfather Lucas and his aunt Aleidis Lucae Verasdonck. His death is not found in records, but Antoni must have died in 1709 or 1710, because his widow Helena Jonkers married Wouter van Seumeren on Sunday the 19th of October 1710 in Vught (two weeks earlier was the public announcement).

As a minor at age 16, in 1692 Antoni was brought to court for criminal activities.

This 'dossier nr 153-12' is about 11 people, who were involved in a theft of goods that police commissioner Wachtendonck had confiscated from Laurens Rutten.

Wachtendonck discovered the theft and had a fight with Willem Kobus. The commissioner died on the spot and Kobus took the confiscated goods.

Antoni Jan Lucassen Verasdonck was mentioned with 8 others:

Cornelis Simons, Jan Segers, Dirk van de Broek, Peter Stevens, Aert Simon, employed by Innkeeper Jan Lucassen Verasdonck, shoeing-smith Jan Everse van Speelberg and Joost NN, who was employed by Jan Everse van Speelberg. Two more people were involved, but not directly to the death of the police man:

Innkeeper Jan Lucassen Verasdonck for lying under oath and sheltering a criminal and Laurens van der Aa for hiding the stolen goods and lying under oath. Laurens was Innkeeper of 'in de Croon'.

Antoni's father, Jan Lucassen Verasdonck likely tried to cover his son, therefore he was convicted for committing perjury and as extra penalty he was blamed for sheltering a criminal (his own son probably).

Antoni learnt his lesson, promised to live a better life and joined the Catharina Guild and promised to pay during his life time yearly 5 'stuivers' for the purchase of candles (24 stuivers = 1 guilder).

Antoni married twice:

1st marriage with Henrina Gijsberth A. van Croonenborch in Best on the 13th of February, 1695. Antoni was 18 years old and Henrina was 22 years old. Henrina and Antoni had 5 children: Johannes, Antonia, Maria, luycas and Francis. Henrina died in October 1703.

His 2nd marriage was a year later in 1704 with Helena Jonkers.

Maria married Hendrik van Seumeren on Sunday 14.06.1722 in Vught. No children from this marriage.

Hendrik was widower to Maria Jorden Vlemingx and had rented the Hoff van Brussel since 1720.

Hendrik likely was a relative to Wouter van Seumere, the third husband of Maria's stepmother, Helena Jonkers.

Antoni was the godfather at the birth of Guillelmus Verasdonck, in 's-Hertogenbosh on 06.04.1729. He was also mentioned in an heritage testamentary together with Lujcas Verasdonck in 1724. Johannes, born in Vught in 1695, was the eldest son in the family, therefore, he was the person to sign the rental contract in 1720 with Henrik van Seumeren on behalf of his half brothers Luycas and Francis and half sisters Maria and Pieternel. Johannes married on 24.2.1731 in Oirschot with Elisabeth Brohees.

Luycas married in Vught with Anthonetta van Esch on 22.04.1725. Two years later on 28.07.1727 Lucas is the last one to sell his shares of the Inn "Hof van Brussel" to Hendrik van Seumeren, the husband of his sister Maria Verasdonck.

Period B "PEELLAND"

Chart 8 1625 Willem

Background information

This is the last chart of the Peelland Branches and not the least interesting. We start with Willem Ver(h)ausdonck. I was not 100% sure if Willem and Johannes were brothers, but the time frame fits very well. Willem's family name must have been Verasdonck but likely the pronunciation was slightly like 'Verausdonck' when he settled in Helmond, but the link to Verasdonck is confirmed when Gijsbrecht Ver(h)ausdonck registered his 2 children as "Verasdonck".

In chart 8 we follow the descendants of Willem Ver(h)ausdonck with all the name variations.

Verasdonck 600 years

Most records mention the name Verh(au/ou)sdonck, but a clerk in Helmond likely had no other way to express his creativity then by finding constantly different ways to spell the family name that changes from Verausdonck via Verhausdonck, Verhousdonck, Verhoudonck and Verhoesdonck to Verhuysdoncq with a Verhuijsdonck and Verhoutsdonck in between. This branch ends with Johannes Verhousdonck born in 1732.
